

Global Leadership Lecture Series

Logistics Parks: Driving Economic Growth

Dr. Yossi Sheffi

Director
MIT Center for Transportation
& Logistics

Richard Allen

Founder and CEO
The Allen Group

Two thought leaders will give different perspectives on the role of logistics parks. Professor Sheffi will start with an overview of the evolution of logistics clusters and how they have become critical parts of global supply chains. Mr. Allen will follow and provide a land developer's perspective using two current in-land port projects that will anchor new Logistics Clusters in the U.S. This will be followed by a Q&A session.
